

A History of Washington Township

1800 – 1890

Virginia Allen

This book chronicles the history of Washington Township from its beginning as its own political entity through the turn of the century. State and national history are interwoven and as a result the reader will learn about the building of America – Native Americans, Settlers, Church, Farming, Elections, Government, Schools, Grist Mills, Wars, Transportation, Westward Migration, Early Resorts, Mining, Post Offices, Banking, Stores, Railroad, and Communications – through what happened right here in what was then German Valley and the surrounding villages of Middle Valley, Pleasant Grove, Stephensburgh, Schooley's Mountain, Flocktown, Springtown, Drakestown, Naughtright, Bartley, Parker, and Unionville. It is 135 pages and includes historic photographs.
